

Maggie's

is hosting a day-long forum to discuss:

What Works for Sex Workers:
Providing Effective and Appropriate Services for Women, Men & Trans People Working in the Sex Trades

Friday, March 12, 8am - 4:30pm
Courtyard Marriott Hotel
475 Yonge Street, Toronto ON.

Morning ► A panel presentation on sex work contexts, social, legal, and population/community specific issues.

Afternoon ► Small group work designed to identify issues, practices and barriers.

This forum is free and includes breakfast, a hot lunch and refreshments. Accommodation will be provided for out-of-town participants. Travel subsidies are available on a limited basis. The Marriott is wheelchair accessible

Registration is limited and open to Ontario agencies. To obtain registration form contact: maggies.education@rogers.com

Please complete and return this form via email by 3pm on Friday, February 26th. If you have questions please call our co-ordinator Nora Currie at 416-929-0580.

We hope to see you there.